

Instructors

Job Description

Descriptions: Being an instructor at Ohio Dreams is probably the most important job we have. No matter what kind of experience we show our campers the rest of the time they are with us the first thing parents will ask is how was the instructor, did you learn a lot? If the answer from the camper is no we have failed at our responsibility. If you don't have an eagerness to help kids learn than this is not a position for you.

You will be responsible for coaching campers, and must be able to relate to campers of all ages. Must be able to maintain a high level of energy and keep things fun throughout instruction and activity periods. Must be able to maintain the schedule created by Ohio Dreams.

Responsible for campers at all times of camper instruction, camper break periods and Camper free time.

Work with Junior Instructors to ensure a great camper experience.

Duties - Chronologically

Sunday Check in 11am - 6pm

Check in for campers is Sunday at 3pm. We must be ready before hand. All staff meets at brunch at 11am. At brunch there is a team meeting where check in duties are assigned. All Instructors will be standing to greet parents as they arrive, you may then use the booths that have been marked off for your sport to help parents fill our "Report Cards". This is a very important time to to make a great impression to our parents you are Ohio Dreams ambassadors.

Sunday Code of Conduct: Instructors are to remain at their stations at all time, and present themselves in a professional manner. No headphones, private radios, cell phones, lazy appearances or interaction with other staff members unless asked by management. Check in is important because it is many parents first impression of us and we don't want to appear to not care about their children. Taking care of our families is the most important thing to us, not gossip or the latest video edit.

Sunday Night 6pm - 8pm

Everybody meets in the cafeteria for dinner.

Be sure to spread staff out as evenly as possible, there should be a staff member at each table and no more than 3 staff members at a table. Please make an effort to switch tables and staff members at each meal.

Before dinner, there is camper orientation in which all rules are covered and the team (all staff) is introduced to the campers. When your name is called be sure to be animated and introduce yourself.

After dinner all staff and campers goes to the pool (unless it is storming, then alternate activities will be planned) Enjoy Sunday's at the pool, encourage kids to have a good time.

As the kids are winding down at the pool counselors will prepare them for the Sunday evening dodgeball game. Counselors will count the kids off into teams and run the games.
